Mr. Randolph replied that those creditors had said nothing about compromise.

Alterman Malion—We are in the fire, and not them. It belongs to us to make advances toward a compromise that may prove mutually satisfactory.

Mr. Randolph—I would not be for making any advances until they show a reasonable spirit. They know that we cannot meet the payment of their claim of four hundred thousand dollars in one year.

ICE CREAM SALOON AND CONFICIAL At the corner of Fourth and Poplar streets.

Having refitted my ice-cream saloons, I will open them to the public to-day. As I have superior facility for manufacturing ice-cream and confectionery, having the only steam ice-cream apparatus in the South, I can assure my friends and patrons of always finding a first-class article of cream. Thankful for past favors, I hope to merit the continuance of the same. Those wishing to see the cream manufactured by steam are cordially invited to call, and I will take great pleasure in showing them through the establishment.
